

Sonic Cinema: Sounding Resistance Film Series

VALERIE TEVERE ANGEL NEVAREZ

Angel Nevarez and Valerie Tevere are multidisciplinary artists who have been working together since 2001 (from 2001-2008 under the collaborative name neuroTransmitter). Their projects and research investigate contemporary music and sound, the electromagnetic spectrum, dissent, and public fora. Nevarez and Tevere's work has been exhibited internationally at MoMA, The Guggenheim Museum, The New Museum, The Henry Art Gallery (Seattle), Manifesta 8 (Spain), and Henie Onstad Art Centre (Norway) among others. Their fellowships include a Creative Capital Fellowship, an Art Matters Grant, and an NEA project grant. Both were Studio Fellows at The Whitney Museum's Independent Study Program and artists-in-residence at the International Artists Studio Program in Sweden (IASPIS), Stockholm, SE.

April 25, 2017

7:30pm

Princeton Garden Theatre
160 Nassau St, Princeton

Free and open to the public